

Bicheno Golf Club is an approved provider for the Ticket to Wellbeing program

The Ticket to Wellbeing program aims to increase the number of older Tasmanians active in sport and active recreation and reduce the membership and/or registration cost for these activities for those that are eligible.

If you are living in Tasmania, are 65 years old or over, and are listed on a Services Australia Health Care or Pensioner Concession Card, then you can apply for a $100 voucher to use towards the cost of sport and active recreation membership and/or registration.

Vouchers must be given to an Approved Activity Provider to redeem by 4 June 2027.

Who is eligible for a voucher?

- Applicants must be:
- living in Tasmania
- aged 65 years and over at the time of application
- be listed on a valid Services Australia Health Care or Pensioner Concession Card

(Commonwealth Seniors Health Card and DVA* cards are not included.)

(*Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA) card holders may be eligible to apply for the Veterans Wellbeing Voucher Program. For more information about how to apply for a voucher visit Veterans Wellbeing Voucher Program.)

How to apply for a Ticket to Wellbeing voucher

You must apply online with a valid email address or with a completed application form in person at a Service Tasmania shop.

Once you have submitted your email address, you will receive an email with a link to the application form. After you complete the form you will receive an email containing the voucher code for the eligible applicant.

What can a voucher be used for?

A voucher can be used toward the cost of club membership or registration fees at Tasmanian sport or active recreation organisations who are listed as an approved activity provider.

Ticket to Wellbeing vouchers can only be used or redeemed by Approved Activity Providers.
